Think !! Write !! Enterprise

A Summer Workshop for Students

Sponsored by the Wiregrass Writing Project in cooperation with the Southeast Alabama Regional Inservice Center

Participants will engage in moving adventures inspired by guest speakers and demonstrations at the Ft. Rucker Museum and Fire department. The fieldtrip to the museum will be both entertaining and educational. Students will learn about aerospace history and how the Enterprise/Ft. Rucker area is part of this history. The four modes of writing will be used by students to write selections for the Think!! Write!! Anthology. The week will conclude with a "Student Show & Tell Lunch" for participants and their parents.

Who Should Attend?

Interested students entering grades 2-8 who aspire to become better thinkers and writers

Who will instruct?

Instructors are Teacher Consultants from the Wiregrass Writing Project (an affiliate of the National Writing Project – found to be "the best large-scale effort to improve writing instruction currently in the country"). These consultants are part of a vital, growing network of teachers nationwide who are developing and practicing the most effective instructional strategies in thinking and writing today.

What will it cost?

The fee of $45.00 covers tuition, anthology, supplies, morning refreshments, admission to the Aviation Museum, and a Think!! Write!! book bag.

When & Where will the workshop be held?

July 6-10, 2009

At Harrand Creek Elementary School, Enterprise, AL

8:30-12:00
